New Mexico State University

A land-grant university and NASA Space Grant College, New Mexico State University thrives in education, research and public service. Nestled between the Organ Mountains and the Mesilla Valley, the 900-acre campus is home to more than 14,000 graduate and undergraduate students from across the country and around the world. Since its founding in 1888, NMSU has served a diverse population of talented students and has charmed many visitors with its vast campus beauty.

The NMSU system prepares graduates by delivering hands-on experiences at the university's four campuses located in Las Cruces, Doña Ana County, Alamogordo and Grants. In addition to educating students, NMSU strives to advance research and deliver information to all New Mexicans through efforts at Cooperative Extension offices in all 33 counties, and 12 agricultural science centers across the state.

NM Sen. Mary Kay Papen
Honorary Degree Recipient

A proud New Mexico State University alumna, Mary Kay Papen '78 was elected to the New Mexico Senate in 2000. Known for her bipartisanship and direct approach, Papen was elected by her colleagues to become just the second woman in New Mexico's history to serve as President Pro Tempore of the Senate. During more than 20 years in the Legislature, she chaired and served on numerous committees and reached across the aisle to move important bills through the Senate.

Papen devoted capital outlay funds at her discretion to projects in the colonias of southern New Mexico for infrastructure needs. As the chair of the New Mexico Finance Authority, she carried legislation to fund water and wastewater project grants that are available to rural communities across the state. She also carried legislation to fund economic development loans to small communities.

Even before becoming a Senator, Papen was a tireless advocate for legislation and resources for mental and behavioral health care and domestic violence prevention. As a legislator, she championed bills to overhaul New Mexico's behavioral health system, expand the number of providers qualified to prescribe medication for mental illness, drastically reduce wait times for families seeking autism diagnosis and services, and improve infrastructure and health care access for rural communities.

An avid supporter of New Mexico State University, Papen secured millions in capital outlay funding for the university over the years to help meet infrastructure needs and support programs. She always looked out for the university's needs, working closely with campus leaders to identify where she could make the greatest impact through both state funding and personal giving.

Today, we celebrate Mary Kay Papen's decades-long legacy as champion for the people of New Mexico and the students of New Mexico State University.

Congratulations, graduates! All your hard work has paid off and you have now achieved something exceptional: you have earned a degree from New Mexico State University. Your efforts have made your families, your friends and your loved ones very proud, and we are all delighted for you.

At NMSU, we exceed our peers in the number of students who applied to go to school here, were accepted here, and have gone on to attend our university. We lead all other institutions in our peer group in this measure. That says a lot about the reputation of NMSU. This is a special place, and as graduates, you've seen that first-hand. Students always tell us that our faculty and our staff genuinely care about them, that they are rooting for their success, and they go out of their way to help whenever needed. This place feels like home for our students, and they feel prepared for post-graduation employment or graduate school.

NMSU has served the people of New Mexico and beyond for 135 years. Over that time, the appearance of our campus has changed, with newer buildings and other facilities, but our identity stays the same. You are now part of that identity. You're part of our unique culture, our history, and our tradition. Now, with your degrees in hand, I am confident that each of you will go on to accomplish even more impressive and wonderful things.

The Aggie Fight Song

Aggies, Oh Aggies

The hills send back the cry

We're here to do or die

Aggies, Oh Aggies

We'll win this game or know the reason why

And when we win this game

We'll buy a keg of booze

And drink it to the Aggies

'Till we wobble in our shoes

A-G-G-I-E-S!

Aggies, Aggies, Go Aggies

Aggies, Oh Aggies

The hills send back the cry

We're here to do or die

Aggies, Oh Aggies

We'll win this game or know the reason why!
